Theft Policy

At Chalo School, theft is defined as taking or having in your possession another person’s property without permission or consent. The following guidelines apply if you should find yourself in this unfortunate situation:

- Full restitution must be made of all items taken.
- Student will receive minimum of two (2) days detention.
- If there is a second occurrence, there will be a meeting with parents, RCMP, other interested parties, and school administration.
- Counselling may be suggested.
- If failure to make restitution, and serve detention, suspension may be applied.

Vandalism Policy

- If a student vandalizes the property of the school, staff or another, full restitution must be made for the clean up or replacement of such property.
- If the student is unable to pay for the replacement of the property, the student will work community service hours.
- Student will receive a minimum of two (2) days detention.
- If there is a second occurrence, there will be a meeting with parents, RCMP, other interested parties, and school administration.
- If failure to make restitution, serve detention, and/or community service hours, suspension may be applied.
