School Supply Allowances for Fort Nelson First Nation Band Members

All Fort Nelson First Nation Band Members from kindergarten to grade 12 (regardless of residency) are entitled to $200.00 for each student enrolled in school. As Fort Nelson First Nation contributes to these funds, they can only be spent on FNFN Band Members. This means only Fort Nelson First Nation Band Members that have completed the membership probation period, are entitled to all Fort Nelson First Nation funded programs, and have students enrolled in school, will be the only students who will receive payment.

Guardians must complete the school supply request forms and submit to the Education Department no later than August 10th. These forms can be submitted by:
